To the media she is 'Britain's Doris Day', to her hundreds of admirers she is 'Britain's best known Big band singer', but here the legendary Rosemary Squires teams up with top musicians the Brian Dee Trio including special guest international guitarist Colin Green, for an afternoon of music and fun recalling the golden years of popular song.

'An Audience with...' sharing memories of Rosemary's star-studded life, by way of anecdotes, monologues, music and song that include Radio and TV series of her own, topping the bill at theatres and concert halls on both sides of the Atlantic, and countless recordings.

'A kaleidoscope of popular entertainment' embracing a versatile career with all the major music makers from Geraldo to more recently the Glenn Miller UK Orchestra and the Brussels Philharmonic Orchestra: snippets with such legends as Ken Dodd, Morecambe & Wise, Louis Armstrong and Cliff Richard; plus cameos from her long running Doris Day Show and the Ella Fitzgerald Songbook Show.

As 'Queen of the Jingles', she has featured in hundreds...which Rosemary recalls jogging memories of even the youngest. Who doesn't remember 'Hands that do Dishes...'?

BRIAN DEE, a celebrity in his own right from his long running BBC Radio Series, has accompanied such stars as Bing Crosby, Peggy Lee, Fred Astaire, and Dudley Moore. Whilst COLIN GREEN, international guitarist, has worked with just about everyone from Kiri Te Kawana to Georgie Fame to Elton John and for many years Shirley Bassey's Musical Director.
